No. 567 of 1872.—His Excellency the Governor General in Council is pleased to publish, for general information, the following extract from Act X. of 1872, regulating the procedure of the Courts of Criminal Judicature, which, it is enacted, shall come into force on the first day of September 1872 :

PART XI.

PREVENTIVE JURISDICTION OF MAGISTRATES.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

Of the dispersion of unlawful assemblies.

480. Any Magistrate or Officer in charge of a Police Station may command any unlawful assembly, or any assembly of five or more persons, likely to cause a disturbance of the public peace, to disperse; and it shall thereupon be the duty of the members of such assembly to disperse accordingly.

481. If, upon being so commanded, any such assembly does not disperse, or if, without being so commanded, it conducts itself in such a manner as to show a determination not to disperse, any Magistrate or Officer in charge of a Police Station may proceed to disperse such assembly by force, and may require the assistance of any person other than any European or Native troops of Her Majesty acting as such for the purpose of dispersing it, and arresting the persons who form part of it.

482. If an unlawful assembly cannot be otherwise dispersed, and if it is necessary for the public security that it should be dispersed, the Magistrate of the highest rank, who is present, may cause it to be dispersed by military force.

483. No Magistrate shall be held to commit any offence by ordering the dispersion by military force of any assembly, the dispersion of which he regards, on reasonable grounds and in good faith, as necessary to the public security.

484. When a Magistrate determines to disperse an assembly by military force, he may require any officer in command of any of Her Majesty's troops, whether European or Native, to disperse such assembly by such force; and it shall be the duty of every such officer to obey every such requisition in such manner as in his discretion appears proper; but, in doing so, he shall use as little force and do as little injury to person and property as is consistent with dispersing the assembly, and arresting and detaining such persons as he may be directed by the Magistrate to arrest and detain, or as it may be necessary to arrest and detain, for the purpose of dispersing the assembly.

What acts done in obeying requisition not an offence.

485. No officer, obeying any such requisition, shall be held to have committed any offence by any act done by him in good faith in order to comply with it.

Acts of inferior officers and soldiers done in obedience to order not an offence.

486. No inferior officer or private soldier shall be held to have committed any offence by any act done for the dispersion of any such assembly in obedience to any order which he was bound by the Mutiny Act, or by the Indian Articles of War, to obey.

487. When the public security is manifestly endangered by an unlawful assembly, and when no Magistrate can be communicated with, any commissioned officer of Her Majesty's European or Native forces may disperse any such assembly by military force; and, in doing so, he shall have the same protection as a Magistrate, and all officers and soldiers acting under his orders shall have the protection mentioned in section four hundred and eighty-six; but as soon as such commissioned officer can communicate with any Magistrate, it is his duty to do so.

488. No prosecution against any Magistrate, officer or soldier for any act done under the provisions contained in sections four hundred and eighty-one, four hundred and eighty-two, four hundred and eighty-four, and four hundred and eighty-seven, shall be instituted in any Criminal Court, except with the sanction of the Government of India, or the Government of Madras or Bombay.

This cancels G. G. O. No. 532, dated the 14th May 1872.

LEAVE AND ALLOWANCES.

The 14th June 1872.

No. 287.—The Governor General in Council is pleased to declare that the under-mentioned rules in the Civil Leave Code are applicable to Commissioned Military Officers in civil employ :

- Rule 2 under section 4 (d) in chapter II.
- Rules 2 and 3 under section 9 (b) in chapter III.
- „ 2 and 4 „ 15 in chapter V.
- Rule 3 under section 18 in chapter VI.
- Rules 2, 4, and 5 under section 21 in chapter VII.
- „ 4, 9, and 10 under section 24 in chapter XII.

2. His Excellency in Council is also pleased to direct the re-publication of the following rules applicable to Commissioned Military Officers in civil employ :

- I.—The words “prior to his proceeding on furlough” in section V. of the military furlough regulations of the 10th November 1868, shall, in the case of an officer who takes subsidiary or preparatory leave before furlough, be understood to mean prior to his being relieved of his duties.
- II.—Days of embarkation and debarkation are parts of furlough, and furlough allowances only are admissible for such days.
- III.—Subsidiary leave ceases the day before embarkation, and commences the day after debarkation. It cannot be extended on the ground that the vessel in which an officer leaves India, or returns to it, touches at some other part in India after the first embarkation or before the final debarkation.
- IV.—If an officer remains in India after the end of subsidiary leave prefixed to furlough, his furlough is held to have begun in India, and his absence on furlough is reckoned from the date on which he gave up office.
- V.—An officer may draw allowances as if he were on privilege leave for any part of his subsidiary leave before furlough, for which, if he were not going on furlough, privilege leave would be admissible to him.
- VI.—When an officer applies for leave he should distinctly state under what rule he wants leave, and show that he is entitled to leave under that rule.
- VII.—Officers going on leave from the Public Works Department are required to produce no-demand certificates from account officers of that Department.
- VIII.—The Government to which an officer is subordinate may exempt him from loss of appointment when he over-stays privilege leave by more than a week.
- IX.—Leave may be retrospectively commuted, by the authority which granted it, to any other kind of leave which the said authority would have been competent to allow when the original leave was sanctioned.
- X.—When privilege leave is, on medical certificate, retrospectively commuted to furlough out of India, so much of the leave passed before embarkation may be treated as subsidiary leave, as the officer would have been entitled to count as subsidiary leave if he had originally obtained furlough and not privilege leave.

XI.—An officer on privilege leave cannot draw his allowances in England, but his agent may draw them in India in the manner prescribed in rule 2 under section 23 (a) of the Civil Leave Code.

XII.—If an officer receive an advance of pay in England to enable him to return to duty in India, the advance must be recovered at the rate of exchange fixed for transactions with the Imperial Government at the time it was made.

3. This notification supersedes the notes in italics below the under-mentioned rules in the Covenanted Civil Service Leave Code of 1871 :

Rules 5 and 6 under section I. in chapter I.

ACTING ALLOWANCE CODE.

ARRANGEMENT OF CHAPTERS.

I.—DEFINITIONS AND EXPLANATIONS.	VI.—THE SURVEY DEPARTMENT.
II.—GENERAL RULES.	VII.—OTHER OFFICERS.
* * * *	VIII.—PLURAL APPOINTMENTS.
IV.—MILITARY OFFICERS IN CIVIL EMPLOY.	IX.—APPOINTMENTS ON PROGRESSIVE PAY.
V.—THE PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.	X.—EXCEPTIONAL CASES.

CHAPTER I.

DEFINITIONS AND EXPLANATIONS.

Section 1.—In the following Rules:

- | | |
|------------------|---|
| Government. | (a.) "Local Government" includes a Department of the Government of India, a Chief Commissioner and the Resident at Hyderabad. |
| Class and grade. | (b.) Appointments are said to be in the same "class" when they are in the same Department and bear the same designation, or have been declared by the Government of India to be in the same class. Appointments in the same class are sometimes divided into "grades" according to pay. |
| Absentee. | (c.) An "absentee" is an officer absent, whether on leave or on duty, from an appointment on which he has a lien. |
| | (d.) Except in Chapter IX, the words "the appointment" mean "the appointment in which an officer is officiating for an absentee." |

Pay and salary.

Section 2 (a.)—The "pay" of an officer is as follows:

- (1.) In the case of an officer with a substantive appointment: the amount which he would receive monthly under any of the following designations if he were doing the work of his substantive appointment:
 - Substantive pay,
 - Consolidated pay,
 - Military pay and allowances, and staff salary,
 - Staff corps pay and staff salary.
 - (2.) In the case of an officer without a substantive appointment: his subsistence allowance (if a Covenanted Civil Servant), and his military pay and allowances, or staff corps pay (if a military officer).
- (b.)—The "pay" of an appointment with reference to any officer, is the pay which he would receive if he held that appointment substantively.
- For instance: if the pay of the appointment is subject to increase upon the passing of an examination or upon the completion of a certain period of service, the officiating officer's allowances are calculated upon the pay which he would, from time to time, receive, if he held the appointment substantively.
- (c.)—"Salary" is the sum of "pay" and "acting allowance;" it does not include personal allowances, travelling allowances, or the like.
- (d.)—"Progressive Pay" is pay which rises from a minimum to a maximum.
- (e.)—"Consolidated Pay" includes military pay and allowances or staff corps pay, which cannot be separately drawn.
- (f.)—"Staff Salary" is an allowance to a military officer in addition to the military pay and allowances or the staff corps pay of his rank.

CHAPTER II.

GENERAL RULES.

Maximum and Minimum.

Section 3 (a.)—The maximum salary of an officiating officer shall be the pay of the appointment.

(b.)—The minimum salary of an officiating officer shall be half the pay of the appointment.

Section 4.—If an absentee draws no part of the pay of his appointment, another officer may be appointed thereto substantively, for a time only, on full pay, without disturbing the lien of the absentee.

Seconding.

1.—An absentee who receives leave allowances draws, within the meaning of this section, "part of the pay of his appointment."

CHAPTER IV.

MILITARY OFFICERS IN CIVIL EMPLOY (NOT BEING IN THE PUBLIC WORKS, THE SURVEY, THE TELEGRAPH, OR THE FOREST DEPARTMENT).

Specification of cases.

Section 7.—The cases which may occur are these—

(A.) An officer officiating in an appointment of which the pay is consolidated may be—

Case 1.—An officer without a substantive appointment.

Case 2.—An officer having a substantive appointment the pay of which is consolidated.

Case 3.—An officer having a substantive appointment the pay of which is a staff salary.

(B.)—An officer officiating in an appointment of which the pay is a staff salary may be—

Case 4.—An officer without a substantive appointment.

Case 5.—An officer having a substantive appointment the pay of which is consolidated.

Case 6.—An officer having a substantive appointment the pay of which is a staff salary.

1.—An appointment of which the pay is fixed with reference to its being held by a civil officer, covenanted or uncovenanted, is treated, for the purposes of this section, as if the pay of it were "consolidated."

Section 8.—In case 1 the officer is entitled to his pay and to such acting allowance as will make the total equal to the sum of the assumed subsistence allowance stated below, plus half the pay of the appointment:

Appointments on consolidated pay.

Assumed Subsistence Allowance.

			Rs.
For the rank of Captain or Subaltern	250 a month.
For the rank of Major	320 "
For higher ranks	400 "

Appointments on staff salary.

Section 9.—In cases 2 and 3 the acting allowance is regulated by section 5.

Section 10 (a.)—In cases 4, 5, and 6 the salaries are calculated by military rules: any excess of the consolidated pay of the substantive appointment in case 5, over the military pay and allowances or the staff corps pay of the officer, being treated as a staff salary.

(b.)—The military rules referred to are as follows:

(1.)—For officers who have elected the rules of 1868—

An officiating officer will draw half the staff salary of the appointment and half the staff salary of his substantive appointment, if he have one: provided the whole staff salary thus drawn be not less than Rs. 100 a month.

(2.)—For officers who have elected the rules of 1854—

An officiating officer will draw half the staff salary of the appointment. After acting for six months, whether continuously or not, in the same post or grade, he is entitled to the full staff salary, as soon as the absentee ceases to draw any part of it.

Section 11 (a.)—A medical appointment, the pay of which was fixed by General Order of the Government of India, Military Department, No. 370, dated the 4th April 1867, is to be treated for the purposes of this chapter as if the pay thereof were a staff salary equal to the excess, if any, of the consolidated pay over the "unemployed pay" of the permanent incumbent:

Medical appointments.

(b.)—Provided that an officer appointed to the Medical Service before 7th November 1864, officiating in one of these appointments, shall receive an aggregate salary not less than his full batta pay.

CHAPTER V.

THE PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

[Engineer Establishment and superior officers of Accounts Branch.]

Section 12 (a)—An officer of a class divided into grades cannot officiate in that class in a grade higher than that to which he is substantively appointed.

No officiating in grades.

(b.)—An officer officiating in a rank which is divided into classes, or in a class divided into grades, will officiate in the lowest class or grade; but this rule does not apply to officers officiating in appointments of which the substantive holders must belong to a particular class.

Section 13 (a)—An officer with a substantive appointment, officiating in a higher class or in another appointment, is entitled to an acting allowance, in addition to his pay, of one-fifth of the civil pay of the class or appointment in which he officiates.

(b.)—A civil officer without a substantive appointment is entitled to an acting allowance of half the civil pay of the class or appointment in which he officiates. A military officer, without an appointment, is entitled to his pay and to such acting allowance as will make the total equal to the sum of the assumed subsistence allowance stated in section 8, plus half the civil pay of the class or appointment in which he officiates.

Explanation.—The civil pay of a graded class is the average civil pay of the grades (calculated without reference to the number of appointments in each grade); but the officiating officer's salary shall not exceed the pay of the lowest grade.

1. The net military pay of an officer of the Royal Engineers is not taken into account in calculating acting allowances. He is entitled to this pay independently of any other allowance.

Section 14.—In the following cases, special allowances are given, on sanction by the Local Government, or, if the appointment be under a Chief Commissioner or an Agent to the Governor General, or under the Resident of Hyderabad, or the Superintendent of Port Blair, by the Government of India:

(a.)—A subordinate officiating as an Executive Engineer is allowed Rs. 100 a month in addition to his pay, provided that the aggregate does not exceed the pay of an Executive Engineer of the 4th Grade.

(b.)—A subordinate officiating as an Assistant is allowed Rs. 50 a month in addition to his pay. This allowance is not admissible on the mere circumstance of the subordinate holding a charge formerly held by an Assistant, but only when the charge involves duties and responsibilities which, in character or extent, are such as are not usually imposed on subordinate officers.

(c.)—An Accountant officiating for a Controller or Deputy Controller is entitled to draw an allowance of Rs. 100 a month in addition to his pay, provided that the aggregate does not exceed the pay of a Deputy Controller.

CHAPTER VI.

THE SURVEY DEPARTMENT.

[Officers not below the Rank of Assistant Surveyor in the Survey Department under the Surveyor General of India.]

Survey Department.

Section 15.—An officer officiating in the grade immediately superior to his own, is entitled to the same allowances as if he were confirmed in that grade.

Section 16.—An officer officiating in a grade higher than that immediately superior to his own, is entitled to an acting allowance, in addition to his pay, of one-fifth of the civil pay of the grade in which he officiates.

1. Rule 1 under section 5 applies to this section also.

Section 17.—An officer without a substantive appointment is entitled to an acting allowance, in addition to his pay (if any), of half the civil pay of the grade in which he officiates.

CHAPTER VII.

OTHER OFFICERS.

Section 18.—The following are the rules applicable to officers in civil employ who are—not members of the Covenanted Civil Service, nor Commissioned Officers in the Army, nor in the Public Works and Survey (India) Departments, unless they are officiating in appointments below the rank of Assistant Engineer, or Assistant Controller, or Assistant Surveyor, nor officers of the superior establishment of the Telegraph and Forest Departments, whose acting allowances are regulated by the special rules contained in the Appendix.

Section 19 (a).—An officer with a substantive appointment officiating in an appointment which is opened to, and may in practice be held by, a Covenanted Civil Servant or an officer of the Army, is entitled to the acting allowance prescribed in section 5.

Examples of the appointments referred to.

Postmasters General, Judges of Small Cause Courts, gazetted officers of Police.

1. The classified list of the Financial Department is excepted from this clause, and comes under the next clause.

(b.)—An officer with a substantive appointment officiating in an appointment to which clause (a) does not apply, and of which the pay is not less than Rs. 100, is entitled to an acting allowance of one-fifth of the pay of the appointment: Provided that no officer may, under this clause, be appointed to officiate in a higher grade of his own class.

1. In the Public Works Department no increased allowances are admissible to an officer of the Upper Subordinate Establishment, or to a Sub-Overseer, for performing duties previously entrusted to one of a higher grade in either of the Subordinate Establishments.

Munsiffs in Madras.

2. In Madras the first, second, and third grades of munsifships are treated as distinct classes.

Explanation.—The pay of an appointment which belongs to a graded class and is not such as is described in clause (a) of this section, is the average pay of the grades, calculated without reference to the number of appointments in each grade; but the officiating officer's salary shall not exceed the pay of the lowest grade, unless he belongs to another Department, and is specially appointed to officiate in a grade other than the lowest.

Section 20.—An officer without a substantive appointment, officiating in an appointment the pay of which is not less than Rs. 100, is entitled to an acting allowance of half the pay of the appointment.

See explanation under the last section.

Section 21.—If the pay of the appointment is less than Rs. 200, and the Local Government considers that the acting allowances admissible by rule are insufficient, it may grant to the officiating officer higher allowances, not exceeding the difference between the pay of the appointment and the portion of it drawn by the absentee for whom he officiates.

Section 22.—The salary of an officer officiating in an appointment of which the pay is less than Rs. 100 should, as far as practicable, be regulated by sections 19 (b) and 20; but the officer who appoints the substitute may grant him higher allowances, not exceeding the difference between the pay of appointment and the portion of it drawn by the absentee for whom he officiates.

CHAPTER VIII.

PLURAL APPOINTMENTS.

Section 23.—The salary of an officer holding substantively, or officiating in two or more independent appointments at one time, shall be regulated as follows:

(a.)—He shall draw the highest salary to which he would be entitled if he held, or officiated in, any one of the appointments alone.

(b).—For the other appointment or appointments, he shall draw such allowances as the Local Government may fix, not exceeding, for each appointment, half the salary which he would draw if he held or officiated in it alone.

(c).—Provided that his aggregate salary shall not exceed the pay which he would draw in the most highly paid of the appointments if he held it substantively and alone.

1. This proviso may be dispensed with, if the Local Government declared that, for special reasons (to be communicated to the Supreme Government), it is necessary, on public grounds, to entrust to the one officer the duties of the several offices at once, and that the salary to which he would be limited by the proviso is insufficient.

[Illustration.—A Covenanted Civil Servant holding a substantive appointment, A, of which the pay is Rs. 1,000, is appointed, without being relieved of his own duties, to officiate in two appointments, B, of which the pay is Rs. 1,600, and C, of which the pay is Rs. 2,200.

	Rs.
If he held A only, he would draw	1,000
If he officiated in B only, he would draw pay Rs. 1,000 and acting allowance Rs. 400	1,400
If he officiated in C only, he would draw pay Rs. 1,000 and acting allowance Rs. 800	1,800
He will, therefore, draw for C (which carries the highest salary)	1,800

And but for proviso (c) he would be entitled for B and A to such allowances as the Local Government may fix, not exceeding Rs. $\frac{1,400}{2} = 700$ for B, and $\frac{1,000}{2} = 500$ for A.

But in consequence of that proviso, his aggregate salary must be limited to Rs. 2,200 (the pay of appointment C), unless the declaration prescribed in Rule 1 be made.]

Section 24 (a).—Section 23 does not apply to the case of an officer officiating at the same time in two or more appointments which are ordinarily held substantively by one individual. In such case the two appointments shall, for the purpose of calculating acting allowances, be treated as one appointment upon the aggregate pay.

(b).—Nor to the case of an officer discharging the duties of more than one appointment in the same office, or on the same establishment.

EXAMPLES.—One Under Secretary discharging the duties of a fellow Under Secretary in the same office or department as well as his own.

A Joint Magistrate appointed, in addition to his own duties to officiate as Magistrate of the District. In this case, he gets allowances only as Officiating Magistrate of the District.

A District Judge deprived of the help of an Additional or Assistant Judge, and therefore doing the additional or Assistant Judge's work.

A Joint Magistrate doing the work of a second Joint Magistrate in the District as well as his own.

A clerk doing the duties of another clerk in the same office.

(c).—Nor does the section affect "local allowances" given for the performance of separate duties.

1. The allowances for the additional charge of an appointment of the kind specified in section 11, are regulated by military rules and not by this Code.

Section 25 (a).—An officer appointed, without being relieved of his own duties, to be in charge of the current duties of an office, is ordinarily not entitled to acting allowance.

(b).—But when an officer is appointed to be in charge of the current duties of a judicial office, or of a gazetted office in the Police Department, and the charge, in the opinion of the Local Government, entails a substantial increase of responsibility, besides some additional work, he is entitled to a charge allowance, to be fixed by the Local Government, not exceeding one-tenth of the pay of the office. If the office is open to, and may in practice be held by, a Covenanted Civil Servant or an officer of the Army, the charge allowance may not be less than Rs. 100 a month.

1. For a subordinate judicial officer in charge of the current duties of a District Judge's Office, the charge allowance is fixed at Rs. 150 a month.

(c).—An officer of the Engineer Establishment of the Public Works Department, appointed, without being relieved of his own duties, to be in charge of the current duties of an office of higher class than his own, is entitled to a charge allowance of one-tenth of the civil pay of the class. But the cases must be reported to the Government of India for confirmation.

CHAPTER IX.

APPOINTMENTS ON PROGRESSIVE PAY.

Section 26 (a).—When an officer is first appointed (whether the appointment be substantive or officiating) to an office of which the pay is progressive and the minimum pay is not less than Rupees 100, the pay of the appointment shall, for the purpose of calculating his salary, be ascertained by counting towards the increments any excess over one year in the period immediately preceding the date on which the appointment takes effect, during which the officer's pay continuously—

(1) if progressive, has been at its maximum, and

(2) has been not less than the minimum pay of the appointment:

Provided that not more than a year can be counted under this section.

(b). If the minimum pay of the appointment is less than Rs. 100, no time can be counted towards the increments before the date on which the appointment takes effect.

Example.—A had since the 1st July 1870 been drawing the maximum pay (Rs. 600) of his appointment. On the 1st December 1871 he was appointed to officiate in an office the pay of which rises from Rs. 600 to Rs. 800. Under this section he counts five months out of the seventeen intervening between the 1st July 1870 and the 1st December 1871. This section, however, does not fix his salary, but only determines one of the elements necessary for its calculation.

Section 27.—After an officer's first appointment, the pay of the appointment shall, for the purpose of calculating his salary, be ascertained by counting towards the increments (in addition to any time admissible under section 26)—

i. Any time, whether continuous or not, during which he has officiated in the appointment, and during which—

(1) his pay, if progressive, has been at its maximum, and

(2) his salary has been not less than the minimum pay of the appointment:

ii. Any time during which he has substantively held the appointment.

Example.—A (the officer in the example under last section) will, under this section, count the time subsequent to 1st December 1871, during which he is officiating in the appointment. But this section, like the last, does not of itself fix his salary.

Section 28 (a).—If the officer is officiating in the appointment, his acting allowance shall be calculated on the mean pay of the appointment; his maximum salary shall be the pay of the appointment as fixed in accordance with sections 26 and 27, and his minimum salary shall be half the mean pay of the appointment.

(b). If the officer holds the appointment substantively, his pay shall be the pay of the appointment as fixed in accordance with sections 26 and 27.

Example.—The "pay of the appointment," as fixed for A in the above example, is—

From December 1, 1871 ...	Rs. 600
From July 1, 1872 ...	650
From July 1, 1873 ...	700
From July 1, 1874 ...	750, and so on.

If he officiates only, he gets Rs. 740 (i. e., Rs. 600 + $\frac{1}{2}$), limited at first to Rs. 600, after the 1st July 1872 to Rs. 650, and after the 1st July 1873 to Rs. 700. But after the 1st July 1874 he will draw the full Rs. 740, as the limit is then Rs. 750.

If he at any time obtains the appointment substantively, he gets the full pay above-stated.

1. The following special rules apply to the Post Office Department:

(a). Unless otherwise specially ordered by the Director General, an officer can count time only under section 27, and can count under part i of that section only so much as is continuous.

(b). An increment of salary accruing in any other month than March must be postponed until the 1st of March next following.

Section 29.—An officer may, by excluding a previous appointment, count a subsequent appointment as the “first” appointment under these rules.

Example.—A officiated from the 1st January 1872 till the 31st March 1872, in an appointment the pay of which was progressive, but his own pay not being at the maximum, he was not entitled to count any time under Section 26.

He is again appointed to officiate on the 1st January 1874, but his pay having for some time been at the maximum, and the other conditions being fulfilled, the circumstances are such that, if this were his first appointment, he would be entitled, under Section 26, to count nine months towards the increments.

As this is more advantageous than it would be to count under Section 27 only the three months of his first officiating tenure, he would, by this section, exclude the first officiating tenure, and count the second tenure (beginning on the 1st January 1874) as the first.

The three months, of course, cannot be afterwards counted under Section 27.

Section 30.—In Departments in which the pay is regulated according to classes, an officer may count, under Section 27, any time during which he has officiated in a higher class, as if he had during that time officiated in any lower class. Time thus counted cannot be afterwards counted towards an increment in the higher class.

Section 31.—Time spent on leave with allowances counts towards increments in the same manner as if during it the officer had actually held or officiated in (as the case may be) the appointment on which he has a lien. But an increment accruing while an officer is on leave does not affect his allowances until he returns to duty.

Section 32.—Time passed under suspension does not count towards increments, if the suspension is a penalty for misconduct; but an officer, in directing reinstatement of a person who has been suspended, may declare that the time shall count.

Note.—The rules in Sections 26 and 30 were first promulgated in the Acting Allowance Code, dated the 1st August 1871.

Section 30 may be applied in fixing the salaries of officers in the appointments which they were holding on the 1st August, but no back pay before the 1st August can be drawn in consequence of the permission given by it.

Section 26 can be applied only in fixing the salaries of officers in appointments made on or after the 1st August, but any officer holding an appointment on the 1st August 1871 may count that appointment as if it had been “first” made on that date.

CHAPTER X.

EXCEPTIONAL CASES.

Section 33.—The allowances of an officiating Ordinary Member of the Executive Council of the Governor General, or of the Governor of Madras or Bombay, are regulated by Act of Parliament, Section 27 of 24 & 25 Vic., Cap. 67.

Section 27.—If any vacancy shall happen in the office of an Ordinary Member of the Council of the Governor General, or of the Council of either of the Presidencies, when no person provisionally appointed to succeed thereto shall be then present on the spot, then, and on every such occasion, such vacancy shall be supplied by the appointment of the Governor General in Council, or the Governor in Council, as the case may be; and until a successor shall arrive, the person so nominated shall execute the office to which he shall have been appointed, and shall have all the powers thereof, and shall have, and be entitled to, the salary and other emoluments and advantages appertaining to the said office during his continuance therein, every such temporary Member of Council foregoing all salaries and allowances by him held and enjoyed at the time of his being appointed to such office; and if any Ordinary Member of the Council of the Governor General, or of the Council of either of the Presidencies, shall by any infirmity or otherwise be rendered incapable of acting or of attending to act as such, or if any such Member shall be absent on leave, and if any person shall have been provisionally appointed as aforesaid, then the place of such Member absent or unable to attend shall be supplied by such person, and if no person provisionally appointed to succeed to the office shall be then on the spot, the Governor General in Council, or Governor in Council as the case may be, shall appoint some person to be a temporary Member of Council, and until the return of the Member so absent or unable to attend, the person so provisionally appointed by the Secretary of State in Council, or so appointed by the Governor General in Council, or Governor in Council, as the case may be, shall execute the office to which he shall have been appointed, and shall have all the powers thereof, and shall receive half the salary of the Member of Council whose place he supplies, and also half the salary of his office under the Government of India, or the Government of either of the Presidencies, as the case may be, if he hold any such office, the remaining half of such last-named salary being at the disposal of the Government of India, or other Government as aforesaid: provided always that no person shall be appointed a temporary Member of the said Council, who might not have been appointed as hereinbefore provided to fill the vacancy supplied by such temporary appointment.

Section 34.—An Officiating Chief Justice, or Judge of any High Court, or of the Chief Court of the Panjab, is entitled to the full pay of the appointment.

Section 35.—An Officiating Law Officer draws, as acting allowance, the difference between the allowance attached to the appointment and the portion of it drawn by the absentee for whom he officiates.

1. The Government of Madras may apply this rule to an officer officiating as translator to Government.

Cases of fixed minima.

Section 36.—The under-mentioned officers, officiating or substantive, are entitled to minimum salaries as follows:

	Rs.
Accountant General in Bengal, Madras, or Bombay ...	1,500
Ditto in the North-Western Provinces or in the Panjab ...	1,200
Ditto (or Deputy Accountant General in independent charge) in British Burmah ...	1,000
Deputy Accountant General (in independent charge) in the Central Provinces, Hyderabad or Mysore ...	800
Uncovenanted Medical Officer in medical charge of a Civil Station ...	350
Supernumerary Deputy Collector in Sind ...	400
Extra Assistant Commissioner, 3rd Class, in British Burmah ...	75
Ditto except as above ...	200
Assistant Superintendent of Police (except those promoted from lower grades) ...	200

Section. 37.—For the following cases there are special rules:

(a.) A Clergyman appointed to perform the duties of a Chaplain on the regular establishment is entitled to an allowance of Rs. 100 a month:

(b.) A Sub-Assistant Surgeon officiating for, or appointed to do the duties of, a Civil Surgeon is entitled to an allowance in addition to his pay, as follows:

If he be in the first or second grade:—Rs. 150 a month, (but he must forfeit the Punjab allowance of Rs. 50 a month, if he has it.)

If he be in the third grade:—Rs. 100 a month.

(c.) A Subordinate Medical Officer officiating in medical charge of a first or second class Civil Station, is entitled to an allowance, in addition to his pay, of Rs. 100 a month.

APPENDIX REFERRED TO IN SECTION 18.

Extract from the Telegraph Code, Chapter D.

82. The following Rules relate to the acting allowances of officers of the superior establishment, the expression "consolidated pay" being in all cases understood as the pay fixed for a Civil Officer holding an appointment, even though the officer affected in the calculation of acting allowance be a military officer:

I.—An officer officiating in the Telegraph Department, who does not hold any substantive appointment, shall receive an acting allowance of half the consolidated pay of the appointment in which he may officiate. In giving acting allowance under this rule to a Military Officer not holding any substantive appointment, who may officiate in the Telegraph Department, the allowance granted will be in addition to his military pay and allowances, up to an amount not exceeding what the officer would draw were he to be confirmed in the lowest grade of the class in which he may be appointed to officiate.

II.—An officer officiating as Director General shall draw a salary not less than Rs. 2,500 a month.

III.—Except as provided in Rules I and V, an officer officiating in a grade immediately superior to his own, shall draw the minimum consolidated pay of that grade; if he be a Military Officer, and the grade in which he is officiating carry staff allowances, he shall draw the same salary as he would draw were he permanently confirmed in the grade in which he officiates.

IV.—Except as provided in Rules I and V, an officer officiating in a grade higher than that immediately superior to his own shall draw an acting allowance of one-fifth of the mean consolidated pay of the grade in which he officiates, provided that the whole salary drawn by him shall not exceed the minimum pay of the grade in which he officiates. If, however, he be a Military Officer, officiating in a grade carrying staff allowances, he shall draw, in addition to the staff allowances of his own grade, an acting allowance of one-fifth of the staff allowances of the grade in which he officiates, provided that the whole salary drawn by him shall not exceed the maximum pay fixed for the grade in which he officiates.

V.—No Assistant Superintendent, when officiating for another Assistant Superintendent of a higher grade, shall draw any acting allowance.

VI.—These rules are to be applied to all officers, Military or Civil, officiating in the superior appointments of the Telegraph Department in all cases, whether in an absolute vacancy or during the absence of the permanent incumbent on general or privilege leave, special duty, or field service.

VII.—The acting allowance to the substitute of an officer on privilege leave will be paid by the State.

VIII.—A Superintendent holding charge of two divisions will receive an allowance of Rs. 100 a month, and any Assistant Superintendent in charge of two subdivisions Rs. 50 a month. This, however, is only to be allowed under special circumstances, and as a temporary arrangement, and must be reported to the Government of India for confirmation.

96. No increased allowances are payable to any officer of the upper or lower subordinate establishment, or to any Sub-Inspector, for performing duties previously entrusted to one of a higher grade in either of those subordinate establishments.

Extract from the Rules of the appointments, &c., of Officers of the Forest Department under the control of the Government of India.

XII.—As a rule, all officiating appointments will be made to the lowest grade of Assistant or Deputy Conservator, and to the lowest class of Conservator, and in such cases the salary of the officiating officer will be the pay of the lowest grade or class of the office in which officiates. There being no fixed number in the different grades of the Assistant Conservator and Deputy Conservator, no officiating appointments in the higher grades within these classes will be permitted.

XIII.—If in any special case an officiating appointment is made otherwise than to the lowest grade or class of Assistant or Deputy Conservator, or Conservator, the salary of the officiating officer will be regulated by the ordinary rules regarding acting allowance, or will be fixed specially by the Government of India.

2. The provisions of the above Notification are applicable to the three Presidencies, as regards the acting allowances of all uncovenanted servants and of military subordinates, including those employed as clerks in public offices under the Military Department.

3. This cancels G. G. O. No. 388, dated the 8th April 1872.

The 20th June 1872.

No. 662 of 1872.—The Governor General in Council has been pleased to authorize clause 136 of War Office Circulars of October 1869 being made applicable to India, with the proviso that such tools only as are actually needed shall be indented for on the Ordnance Department as a charge against the State.

2. The first supply of artificers' tools will, as a rule, be made to British regiments before their arrival in India; but to enable the Ordnance Department to provide for renewals, commanding officers should submit to the Ordnance Department annual indents for their requirements, on the dates and in the manner prescribed, for the submission of indents for regimental necessities.

G. G. O. No. 1080, page 324 of 1864.

3. The artificers' tools are to be treated in the same manner as other stores taken to, and brought from, India by regiments, and they are to be valued and reported upon by the inspecting officers at the usual time of survey.

G. O. C. C. No. 887 of 1870.

4. It is to be understood that the system of workshops now in force is not necessarily to be superseded; but that it is optional with commanding officers to maintain the workshops of their regiments on their present footing, in which case the tools sanctioned by Government will not be indented for.

5. All tools and plant now the private property of regiments will remain so, and will not be taken over by Government.

2. Officers commanding batteries will be permitted to procure from the public stores, on payment, materials for the repair of harness and saddlery, or to purchase in the local market at their own discretion, with the proviso that all repairs to English or Cawnpore Depot manufactured harness are to be executed with Cawnpore Depot leather, and English serge, trace rope and thread.

3. Indents on the Ordnance Department for materials for repairs are to be accompanied by a certificate from the indenting officer, that the materials demanded are bona fide for the public service. It will rest with the Inspector General of Ordnance to reduce any requisition for materials which it may be inconvenient to supply.

4. Harness and saddlery manufactured at the Cawnpore factory will last five years.

On the expiration of the five years, the harness or saddlery will be examined by a special committee, to decide whether it shall serve for a longer period, which shall be fixed, or whether it shall be condemned.

5. Any parts of the harness or saddlery, such as wood-work or iron, found to be fit for further service, will be returned to the Ordnance Department with this opinion.

No. 664 of 1872.—Addendum.—In G. G. O. No. 608 of the 7th June 1872, confirming the grant of furlough to Australia and Europe, on private affairs, to Captain R. S. Robertson, after the words "Bengal Staff Corps," insert the words Brigade-Major, Umballa.

Order Books to be corrected accordingly.

No. 665 of 1872.—The Governor General in Council is pleased to notify that it has been arranged by the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India, in communication with the War Office, that in future the pay of entire batteries of the royal artillery proceeding to, and returning from, India, shall be adjusted in the same manner as is prescribed for whole regiments of the line in Clause 114 of Army Circulars dated 1st August 1870, published for information and guidance in G. G. O. No. 1168 of the 15th December following.

The necessary instructions in furtherance of this arrangement have been issued by the War Office to the Pay Masters of the royal artillery at home, and the pay lists of batteries will be dealt with accordingly, in all three Presidencies, to which this order is applicable.

No. 666 of 1872.—The following Notification, issued by the Financial Department, No. 287, dated 14th June 1872, is re-published for general information :

LEAVE AND ALLOWANCES.

The 14th June 1872.

No. 287.—The Governor General in Council is pleased to declare that the under-mentioned rules in the Civil Leave Code are applicable to Commissioned Military Officers in civil employ :

- Rule 2 under section 4 (d) in chapter II.
- Rules 2 and 3 under section 9 (b) in chapter III.
- „ 2 and 4 „ 15 in chapter V.
- Rule 3 under section 18 in chapter VI.
- Rules 2, 4, and 5 under section 21 in chapter VII.
- „ 4, 9, and 10 under section 24 in chapter XII.

2. His Excellency in Council is also pleased to direct the re-publication of the following rules applicable to Commissioned Military Officers in civil employ :

- I.—The words "prior to his proceeding on furlough" in section V. of the military furlough regulations of the 10th November 1868, shall, in the case of an officer who takes subsidiary or preparatory leave before furlough, be understood to mean prior to his being relieved of his duties.
- II.—Days of embarkation and debarkation are parts of furlough, and furlough allowances only are admissible for such days.
- III.—Subsidiary leave ceases the day before embarkation, and commences the day after debarkation. It cannot be extended on the ground that the vessel in which an officer leaves India, or returns to it, touches at some other part in India after the first embarkation or before the final debarkation.

- IV.—If an officer remains in India after the end of subsidiary leave prefixed to furlough, his furlough is held to have begun in India, and his absence on furlough is reckoned from the date on which he gave up office.
- V.—An officer may draw allowances as if he were on privilege leave for any part of his subsidiary leave before furlough, for which, if he were not going on furlough, privilege leave would be admissible to him.
- VI.—When an officer applies for leave he should distinctly state under what rule he wants leave, and show that he is entitled to leave under that rule.
- VII.—Officers going on leave from the Public Works Department are required to produce no-demand certificates from account officers of that Department.
- VIII.—The Government to which an officer is subordinate may exempt him from loss of appointment when he over-stays privilege leave by more than a week.
- IX.—Leave may be retrospectively computed, by the authority which granted it, to any other kind of leave which the said authority would have been competent to allow when the original leave was sanctioned.
- X.—When privilege leave is, on medical certificate, retrospectively computed to furlough out of India, so much of the leave passed before embarkation may be treated as subsidiary leave, as the officer would have been entitled to count as subsidiary leave if he had originally obtained furlough and not privilege leave.
- XI.—An officer on privilege leave cannot draw his allowances in England, but his agent may draw them in India in the manner prescribed in rule 2 under section 23 (a) of the Civil Leave Code.
- XII.—If an officer receive an advance of pay in England to enable him to return to duty in India, the advance must be recovered at the rate of exchange fixed for transactions with the Imperial Government at the time it was made.

3. This notification supersedes the notes in italics below the under-mentioned rules in the Covenanted Civil Service Leave Code of 1871:
